Dear Bonnie:

The Commission Staff has reviewed the Company's filings and the settlement agreement. I am writing to ask whether the Company can make available a set of audited financial statements, including any notes, which cover a full year of operations. It would be very helpful to the Staff if the Company would provide these documents in advance of the June 29 hearing, if they exist.

Also, would you please advise me whether your client would prefer that the Hearing Examiner prepare a proposed order as provided for in the statute or whether you will present one and waive the Hearing Examiner's order.

I have copied all parties with this communication. Thanks very much for your help.
